PRESS RELEASE

Visit of the Greek Judge of the European Court of Human Rights at the Hellenic Court of Audit

The President of the Hellenic Court of Audit, Mrs Sotiria Ntounis, and the State Prosecutor General of the Court, Mr Stamatios Poulis, welcomed the Greek Judge at the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), Mr Ioannis Ktistakis.

Mr Ktistakis addressed the Judges of the Hellenic Court of Audit via videoconference and informed them about the recent activities of the ECtHR, with particular emphasis on pending applications concerning Greece and the major judgments delivered by the Court over the past year.

Special reference was made to the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), marking an emblematic milestone for the European legal order and the protection of fundamental rights.

A constructive discussion followed, during which the Judges of the Hellenic Court of Audit had the opportunity to pose questions and exchange views with the Greek Judge.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the President of the Hellenic Court of Audit presented Mr Ktistakis with a commemorative medal of the Court, as a token of appreciation for accepting the invitation and for his contribution to the institutional dialogue between the ECtHR and the Hellenic Court of Audit.
